

LEEBOYD

Joao Lima: Architect

Year of Qualification: 2000

Date Joined Practice: 2008

Qualifications: BArch

Professional Membership: ARB

Background and Experience:

Joao is an experienced project architect who has worked on a broad range of project types. He is highly organised and has a strong technical ability that translates into the relationship between design and detailing to ensure continuity.

- Project Architect and Designer for the new security entrance facility for the Scottish Parliament. This high profile project, won through OJEU, involved preparing creative solutions which exceeded the current standards for security in public buildings.
- Project Architect for the conversion of the Grade A Listed Whitehill House on the outskirts of Edinburgh into residential accommodation. The project also includes the design of new build housing units within the extensive grounds of the house.
- Team Architect for a number of projects for the Scottish Parliament, carried out as part of a professional property services framework commission.
- Project Architect for a new indoor riding arena, stables and support facilities for Ravelrig RDA based in Balerno, Edinburgh.
- Team Architect for a number of projects for the National Library of Scotland, carried out as part of a professional property services framework commission.
- Project Architect for new visitor centre at the Beefeater Gin Distillery in Kennington, London. Working in collaboration with a design consultant in London, we have created an exciting solution for the new visitor experience
- Project Architect for new build office building for HBoS. With elements of refurbishment, the high security building project was executed under a traditional contract. The building benefits from a sophisticated access system, CCTV, security bollards and ballistic glass.
- Team Architect for the conversion of the Old Printworks in Glasgow. This Listed building was being converted to provide hotel and apartment accommodation.
- Team Architect for fit out of Grade A Listed banking hall at 110 St Vincent Street, Glasgow for HBoS.
- Architectural Assistant for new build housing at West Granton Road for Port of Leith Housing Association.

